ABOUT

Galeon 560 Fly

The 560 FLY first grabs the eye with lines that are both muscular and playful. A wide beam that carries well forward gives this vessel a substantial presence. It's a design choice that pulls double duty, allowing for unmatched interior volume, particularly on the accommodations level. But the 560 FLY has other attractive exterior aesthetics at play as well. Loads of glazing along the hullsides combine with massive windows on the main deck to create an airy and futuristic look. And when coupled with creatively designed bridge accents which appear to defy gravity, this is a yacht with lines to remember.
