GENERAL DESCRIPTION

2007 Azimut 68S, an Italian masterpiece that shattered the mold for express cruisers with its "strikingly different" design and exhilarating performance. This vessel seamlessly blends the aggressive styling of a high-performance open yacht with the comfort of a motor yacht, featuring a single-level main deck that transforms into a vast, open-air haven at the touch of a button via its enormous retractable sunroof and fully disappearing glass doors. The lower deck is a sanctuary of modern Italian luxury, utilizing minimalist design, wenge wood, and distinctive square hull windows to offer panoramic ocean views from the full-beam master suite, a feature rarely seen in this class. The main deck allows for a 360° view of the sea, while the sliding hard top provides over 60 square feet of open sky. This yacht is a testament to the Avigliana shipyard’s commitment to excellence in yacht production, offering a blend of sporty performance and luxurious comfort.
