Seriously For Sale, $40k Reduction, Original Owner looking for Offers!!

“Offshore Flyer” is a very clean and well maintained Azimut 46, combining a timelessly modern Italian design with timeless Euro styling and lines. On deck, she features a large flybridge with beautifully curved seating. The cockpit has an engine room access hatch and there's a large lazarette locker for storage. The stern provides a substantial swim platform with dingy chocks and is accessed via the two entrances from the cockpit. There is also a hydraulic passerelle for ease and safety of boarding while stern tying.

The salon is bright and spacious with cherry joinery throughout. The elevated helm provides a commanding view while operating the yacht, while still being included in conversation with guests in the salon. The galley is "down" and is fully outfitted for food preparation. The guest stateroom is to starboard with twin beds and ample storage. The guest head is adjoining, with an ensuite door and another from the main passageway. The owner's stateroom features a centerline queen berth, a vanity, ensuite private head and a convenient walk-in wardrobe with lots of storage.
