ABOUT

Azimut AZ60 Fly

This beautifully maintained Azimut 60 Fly represents an exceptional opportunity to own a late-model Italian motor yacht without the wait of new construction. With just 285 original engine hours and significant recent maintenance completed, she is turnkey and ready for immediate cruising.

Azimut's renowned design is evident the moment you step aboard. Her sleek exterior profile is complemented by expansive hull-side windows that flood the interior with natural light, creating a bright and contemporary atmosphere throughout the salon and dining areas. The layout is thoughtfully designed for both entertaining and extended cruising, offering generous social spaces on the flybridge, aft deck, and foredeck, along with comfortable and private accommodations below.

The flybridge provides ample seating, sun lounging areas, and an upper helm with excellent visibility, making her equally suited for owner-operators or those cruising with captain and guests. Inside, refined finishes, modern styling, and panoramic windows give the main deck an open, luxurious feel. The staterooms are well appointed and inviting, offering the comfort expected from a yacht in this class.

Importantly, this vessel has benefited from substantial recent updates and proactive maintenance. In October 2025, fifteen new AGM batteries were installed for the entire boat, ensuring reliable power throughout all systems. The engines received their annual service in January 2026, and upgraded sump pumps were installed at that time. An air conditioning continuous top-off device was also added to compensate for evaporation and maintain optimal system performance.

Cosmetically and below the waterline, she is equally well cared for. The bottom was painted and Prop Speed applied in June 2025. The teak was professionally refinished with a two-part sand and seal in January 2026, followed by a full compound, wax, and polish, allowing her to show beautifully and reflect the pride of ownership she has received.

With low hours, extensive recent service, and meaningful upgrades already completed, this 2023 Azimut 60 Fly stands out in today's brokerage market. She offers the style, performance, and comfort Azimut is known for, paired with the confidence of up-to-date maintenance and turnkey readiness.
