This Bavaria C50 is designed for owners who value comfortable family cruising, extended stays onboard, and easy handling under sail. Built in 2025 and lightly used with only 350 hours, she offers a modern platform for exploring the Mediterranean with the confidence of a nearly new yacht and a carefully selected equipment package.

Equipped with both bow and stern thrusters, electric winches, a 2500W inverter, and a 1000W solar power system, she is configured for stress-free operation and increased independence while cruising or spending extended periods at anchor. Her navigation suite includes GPS, AIS, autopilot, VHF radio, MOB system, wind instrumentation, depth sounder, speedometer, and compass, providing excellent situational awareness underway.

The Bavaria C50 delivers a spacious onboard lifestyle with generous outdoor living areas. The cockpit features teak decking, two electric tables, factory sunbathing cushions, stern relaxation cushions, cockpit speakers, and a bimini top, creating a welcoming environment for entertaining guests or enjoying relaxed evenings in secluded anchorages. The electric bathing platform, swim ladder, deck shower, gangway, and aluminum dinghy with electric motor further enhance everyday usability on the water.

Inside, the yacht is equipped for extended cruising with hot water, electric toilets, a fully equipped galley, refrigerator, freezer, oven, stove, sink, extractor hood, Bluetooth connectivity, radio, MP3 player, iPod connection, and a 50-inch Smart TV. The result is a comfortable and practical cruising yacht that blends modern convenience with the sailing capabilities that have made the Bavaria C50 one of the most popular models in her class.
