ABOUT

Bayliner Trophy 20CX

LOCATION

Dania Beach, Florida, United States

Bayliner has come through again with a new and versatile model perfect for the water of South Florida, they have dubbed it the Trophy 20 CX. CX means the model is equipped with an aft bench seat which is more suitable for family use. Conversely, the Trophy 20 CX Center Console model is equipped with an aft deck which is fitting for close to shore or shallow water fishing.

Whether you choose the CX or CC model, the hull is basically the same with a deep-V designed to handle choppy water. The boat handles much like a 23-footer. It is a versatile hull, good for cruising although its heart is in fishing.

Although the 20CX is a value-oriented vessel, Bayliner has not taken any shortcuts in the development and manufacturing process of this boat. The boat is equipped with an enclosed head, self-bailing cockpit, ice chest/cooler under the forward-facing seat in front of the helm. There is room for rod storage under the Gunwale, rod holders and loads of additional fishing features.
