ABOUT

Golden Mile

LOCATION

Busan, Busan, South Korea

The Golden Mile is a well-maintained example of the proven Bering 65, presented in very good condition and benefiting from careful ownership and consistent upkeep.

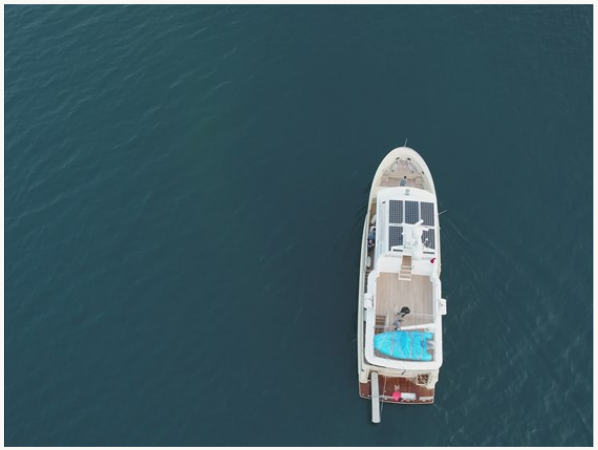

The yacht has been primarily owner-operated, reflecting a high level of attention to detail and responsible maintenance throughout her service life. She has been mainly used for fishing and extended coastal cruising, demonstrating both practicality and reliability in real-world use.

Seasonal lay-ups have taken place in Busan, South Korea, where the vessel has been properly winterized and maintained.

Golden Mile has spent most of her operational time in Southeast Asia, as well as in more demanding northern regions.This operational profile highlights her true expedition capability and suitability for a wide range of cruising conditions.

A solid and dependable explorer yacht, she is an excellent opportunity for an owner seeking a capable, long-range vessel with a proven track record.
