ABOUT

Boston Whaler 420 Outrage

There's a reason serious boaters in New England keep coming back to the Boston Whaler Outrage line, and this 420 takes that legacy to a whole new level. Under the hood, quad Mercury 400 V10 AMS engines deliver the kind of power that makes running out past Boston Harbor and over to Stellwagen Bank feel effortless, while the gyroscope stabilizer keeps things smooth even when the Atlantic decides to toss a little chop your way. At the helm, the Simrad 16" NSO triple display navigation package and Simrad Open Array Halo 48" radar give you total confidence finding your way through fog off Cape Cod, and the thermal night vision with pan, tilt, and zoom means an early departure for Provincetown or a late return into the harbor is never a guessing game. A diesel generator keeps the power flowing no matter how long you're out chasing fish or exploring the coast.

Out on deck, this boat is built to turn heads at every marina from Boston to P-town. The platinum exterior with black frame and rubrail gives it a sharp, modern look, while black canvas and a bow sun shade mean you're covered whether you're running offshore or anchored up for a lazy afternoon. The deluxe radial outriggers make this a serious fishing platform, and the fold-down trolling seats (2) let you settle in comfortably whether you're working a bait spread off Stellwagen Bank or just soaking in the view of the Boston skyline on the ride home.

As the sun goes down, the underwater blue lighting turns the swim platform into its own little scene, whether you're anchored in a quiet cove on the Cape or tied up for the night in the harbor. Pair that with the premium audio package and you've got the perfect soundtrack for sunset cocktails or a late-night cruise back past the city lights. It's the kind of detail that makes this boat just as much fun at rest as it is underway.

Inside, the gray exterior upholstery brings a clean, upscale feel that matches the boat's serious offshore capability without sacrificing comfort for guests. Whether you're running a full day trip from Boston Harbor out to Cape Cod and Provincetown, or just getting out on the water for an afternoon with friends, this 420 Outrage is built to handle whatever New England boating throws at it — and look great doing it. This is a boat for those who want it all: performance, technology, and style, all wrapped up in one unmistakably capable package.
