2001 Carver 396 Motor Yacht – Immaculate Condition – Fort Lauderdale

Offered for sale is an immaculate 2001 Carver 396 Motor Yacht , ideally located in Fort Lauderdale's Isles off Las Olas , just minutes from the beach, ocean access, and downtown dining. Even better, the slip can be taken over with the boat , a rare and highly valuable opportunity in this location.

Introduced as one of Carver's most successful designs, the 396 Motor Yacht is renowned for its exceptional interior volume, raised walkaround deck design, and open "great room" salon layout . The result is a yacht that lives far larger than her length and is perfectly suited for weekend cruising, entertaining, or comfortable liveaboard use.

This vessel has been meticulously maintained and shows extremely well throughout . The bright, airy salon features expansive windows, generous seating, and an open flow to the galley and dinette, creating a true floating living space. The large aft deck with hardtop is ideal for entertaining, while the spacious flybridge offers excellent visibility and plenty of room for guests underway or at anchor.

Below, the yacht features two private staterooms and two full heads , providing excellent separation and privacy. The master aft stateroom is particularly impressive, with abundant storage and en suite head access. The forward stateroom also enjoys direct access to a head with separate shower and toilet compartments , a standout feature in this class.
