GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Tug SEA MONSTER, is of all welded steel hull construction, will aluminum superstructure. The vessel features raised forecastle deck, and raised main deck aft to a rounded transom. Set atop the second deck and forward is the raised pilothouse.

Below the main deck finds four (4) compartments, designed to be watertight. They are the forepeak with chain locker; followed by a stateroom area with tankage under; followed by the engine room. The main deck features a large stateroom forward, followed by the galley, followed by the main salon. The main salon is full-exterior walk-around port, starboard and aft.

Above the main deck finds two (2) levels. The second deck finds owner's stateroom forward, followed by the upper salon with open deck aft. The third deck is the pilothouse, accessed by interior stairway, followed by the stack and open aft deck surrounded by stainless steel handrails.

ACTUAL CONDITION

The Tug, SEA MONSTER, presents a blank slate to any buyer. The interior is devoid of any fit and finish, but the hull is in very good condition, it contains no oils of any kind, no fit out, finish work, plumbing, wiring, lighting or machinery. The current owner was planning to complete the vessel as a floating restaurant.

It is a clean 7,000+ square foot platform. She is ready for a new buyer to design for their purpose. Please inspect carefully before making an offer.
