ABOUT

Amelia Seas

LOCATION

Fort Lauderdale, Florida, United States

Beautiful, comfortable, and unmistakably Italian, M/Y AMELIA SEAS is a 2024 50' Ferretti Yacht that brings together sleek styling, refined craftsmanship, and the practical livability that make this model so appealing. Built by one of the most respected names in yachting, she offers an airy interior & a versatile three-stateroom layout w/ crew accommodations...making her equally well suited for family cruising, entertaining, and extended weekends on the water.

Constructed with a GRP hull in a planing modified-V, AMELIA SEAS delivers the polished fit/finish the Ferretti brand is known for...along with strong owner operator appeal in the 50-foot class/size range. She presents as a well appointed, comfortable late-model flybridge yacht, further complemented by above average interior joinery, very light machinery time (50 hours) on her twin Cummins diesels, and Seakeeper stabilization. The seller has already secured his next yacht and is now a two-boat owner, creating a timely opportunity for a buyer to acquire a highly desirable Ferretti 500 currently offered for sale in the U.S., without the wait associated with a new build.
