ABOUT

Filippetti F90

LOCATION

Ancona, Marche, Italy

The Filippetti F90 is a modern flybridge yacht that fuses elegant design, advanced engineering, and expansive living spaces, offering a refined yet deeply connected experience with the sea. Created in collaboration with acclaimed designer Fulvio De Simoni, this new-build opportunity is ideal for buyers seeking a yacht that prioritizes luxury, performance, and customization.

Crafted with a focus on fluidity between indoor and outdoor spaces, the F90 features a layout that extends seamlessly from stern to bow, creating a unified environment where the ocean is always within reach. The yacht is fitted with four guest cabins and four heads, offering generous accommodations for family and guests. The two crew cabins with two crew heads ensure professional service and smooth operations on board. Every detail is thoughtfully considered including hand-finished materials, premium fittings, and refined craftsmanship define the interiors, while the exterior decks offer versatile areas for lounging, dining, and entertaining.

Powered by MAN marine engines, the F90 is built for quiet, stable, and high-performance cruising in various conditions. The yacht incorporates Filippetti's Dynamic Speed solution, designed to optimize fuel efficiency and environmental performance without sacrificing speed or handling.

As with all Filippetti models, the F90 is fully customizable, allowing owners to work directly with the shipyard to tailor every element of the yacht, from layout to materials, to reflect their unique vision. The result is a vessel that offers a perfect balance of form, function, and freedom, making the Filippetti F90 a compelling choice for those seeking elevated design and on-the-water excellence.
