ABOUT

Fairway

LOCATION

Napa, California, United States

If you are looking for a stout pilothouse motor yacht capable of navigating the Pacific Northwest, don't miss this rare opportunity! Built in the UK, this vessel has a long keel providing better directional stability. Her ketch rig allows for better comfort and is generally considered easier to handle because the sails are smaller and because it can sail on most points to the wind with one sail completely taken down. The pilothouse has 360 degree viewing and there is a sliding sun roof for extra ventilation. The main salon offers great head room, full galley and plenty of comfortable seating. Enclosed head w/shower and large V berth forward with vanity and wash basin.
