ABOUT

Grady-White 251 Coastal Explorer

This 2022 Grady-White 251 Coastal Explorer is a great fit for someone who wants to fish in the morning and meet family and friends at the sandbar in the afternoon. Lift-kept under cover with fewer than 100 engine hours, it's an opportunity to get into a lightly used Grady-White with the versatility to make the most of your time on the water.

Built on Grady-White's SeaV²® hull, the 251 Coastal Explorer is well suited for inshore fishing and coastal cruising. Bow and stern fishing platforms, built-in rod storage, and a deluxe lean bar with lockable storage and a 25-gallon livewell give you a practical, well-equipped fishing setup.

When it's time to put the rods away, the bow table and aft center backrest make the transition to a relaxing afternoon easy. A head compartment adds convenience for longer days aboard, while low gunwales provide easy access to the water. Additional features include windshield wipers.

If you've been looking for a boat that fits both your fishing plans and time with family, this 251 Coastal Explorer deserves a closer look.

Located off-site.
