ABOUT

Grady-White 375 Freedom

Step aboard the impressive 2017 Grady-White 375 FREEDOM, perfectly suited for days spent exploring Huntington Harbor and its scenic North Shore surroundings. With triple Yamaha 350hp outboards and just 630 hours, this vessel delivers both strength and reliability—making trips from the marina to local favorites like Eatons Neck or the sandbar by Target Rock effortless and enjoyable. Navigate with confidence thanks to a full array of electronics, including radar, GPS, compass, fish and depth finders, autopilot, plotter, VHF, a Flir Night Vision camera, and a remote spotlight—ideal for safely cruising back after sunset dinners in Huntington Bay.

Style meets function on deck, with a cream white hull, inviting cream interior, and classy ivory canvas. Whether you're relaxing under the hardtop, dialing in the perfect anchorage with a robust windlass, or taking cover beneath the cockpit, tonneau, or side and aft curtains, you'll be comfortable in any weather. A generator provides off-grid power when dropping anchor near Lloyd Point or hosting friends in quiet coves, so you can count on every amenity wherever you choose to cruise.

The interior is equally inviting and well-appointed, featuring custom seat covers, plush climate-controlled spaces, and an entertainment-ready TV/DVD setup for winding down after a day on the water. The thoughtfully equipped galley includes a refrigerator, microwave, and stove—making it easy to serve up breakfast before setting out or lunch after a morning spent casting for local game fish. Ample seating and a flowing cabin layout mean family and guests always feel at home.

Anglers and adventurers alike will love the built-in fishboxes and live well, offering everything needed for a successful run out past Centre Island in search of striped bass or bluefish. Whether your journey keeps you in the heart of Huntington's lively boating scene or carries you to quieter corners along the coast, this Grady-White 375 FREEDOM is set up for both fun and serious cruising—delivering lasting comfort, confident handling, and memorable days on Long Island Sound.
