ABOUT

Harris Grand Mariner 250

This 2024 Harris Grand Mariner 250 brings the easygoing comfort pontoon fans love straight to the Gulf Shores waterfront. A single Mercury 300L outboard with 328 hours gives her plenty of muscle to get up and move across open water, so whether you're launching from a marina on Wolf Bay or crossing over toward the Intracoastal Waterway, you've got the power to get where you're going without a long wait. The premium fiberglass helm gives the whole console a polished, upscale feel, and the reclining helm chair means the captain rides just as comfortably as everyone else on board, even on longer runs out toward Little Lagoon.

Out on the water around Gulf Shores, this Grand Mariner 250 is built to handle whatever the day brings. The Bimini top unfolds easily to keep the sun off during a slow cruise past Lagoon Pass, or while you're anchored up watching the boats go by near the Gulf State Park Pier. When it's time to head home, the telescoping boarding ladder makes it simple to climb back aboard after a swim, whether you've stopped for a dip near Bear Point or just off a quiet stretch of Wolf Bay.

Back at the dock, the mooring cover keeps her protected and ready for the next outing, so there's less time spent on upkeep and more time spent on the water. It's a small detail, but one that matters if you're planning to make regular trips out around Gulf Shores - from sunset cruises along the Intracoastal to lazy afternoons drifting near Robinson Island.

Whether you're easing out past the Gulf State Park Pier at sunrise, soaking in the view of Little Lagoon in the afternoon, or winding down with a quiet evening on Wolf Bay, this Harris Grand Mariner 250 is built to make every trip out of Gulf Shores feel relaxed and easy. She's a simple, comfortable pontoon with just the right touches to make life on the water enjoyable.
