GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The 1998 Hunter 240 is a versatile and trailerable pocket cruiser that offers big adventure in a compact, easy-to-handle package. Ideal for weekend getaways or exploring inland lakes and coastal waters, this water-ballasted sailboat features a spacious open cabin with sleeping accommodations for four. The cockpit is roomy for a boat of its size, with comfortable seating and tiller steering that provides a responsive sailing experience. With its retractable centerboard and mast-raising system it's perfect choice for sailors who want mobility without sacrificing comfort or performance.
