ABOUT

Outta Touch

LOCATION

Puerto Real, Puerto Rico, United States

The raised-pilothouse configuration gives OUTTA TOUCH a distinct separation between navigation, indoor entertaining, and outdoor living. A broad 23 ft-plus beam supports the main-deck salon, independent dining room, forward galley, and a generous flybridge arranged for day-to-night use. The aft deck is directly connected to the salon and swim platform, making it an easy hub for dining, tender operations, and water access.

The yacht is supported by a comprehensive charter equipment and guest-experience program. A separate charter equipment overview details the current tender, watersports, diving, fishing, connectivity, and guest-amenity offering.
