ABOUT

Compass Rose

LOCATION

Cape Coral, Florida, United States

It is a rare priviledge when I come across a boat this well taken care of, and I have had the pleasure of representing this boat twice, once when the original owner decided to sell, and now by the current owner and buyer of this boat just over four years ago. The current owner has maintained the boat in Bristol condition, upgraded the electrical system with lithium-ion batteries and related charging/monitoring sytems, replaced the standing rigging, lifelines, the engine heat exchanger and prop shaft, and installed a new VHF and windlass. Factory carpeting has protected the cabin sole, and a new professional varnish job on all the exterior teak make this boat shine! With the shoal draft, cozy anchorages have never been more accesible.
