ABOUT

Mawe

LOCATION

Fort Lauderdale, Florida, United States

A spectacular example of the Island Packet 440, MAWE has had just two owners since new and the yacht has been impeccably maintained over the past 18 years to better-than-new status. The lengthy equipment and upgrade list that follows demonstrates the current owner's love, knowledge and care of this fine vessel. A turn-key yacht for the most demanding cruisers looking to explore the oceans of the world, MAWE is ready to venture off on new adventures with new owners. Complete maintenance logs, updated sails, and a self-sustaining electrical system will allow off-the-grid living for years to come.

The Island Packet 440 model replaced the very popular IP420 with several improvements to make it even better. A larger and faster version of the 420, the IP440 has a larger swim platform, solid teak and oak cabin soles, solid acrylic countertops throughout, a forward facing nav station, larger fuel, water and holding tanks, with better performance from a longer waterline and more sail area.

MAWE is a stunning example of this hard-to-find Island Packet model. Don't let this yacht slip through your fingers.
