ABOUT

Jeanneau NC1095 Fly

LOCATION

Fort Lauderdale, Florida, United States

The 2025 Jeanneau NC1095 Fly is a modern 34-foot flybridge cruiser designed for comfortable extended cruising and family adventures. It features a spacious layout with either two or three double cabins, accommodating up to six people. The main deck offers a bright salon with large windows, a fully equipped galley, and an aft cockpit that seamlessly connects to the interior. The standout feature is the expansive flybridge, which includes a helm station, forward sundeck, and a folding copilot bench that transforms into a sun lounger or additional seating area. This upper deck provides panoramic views and an elevated space for relaxation and socializing.

The NC1095 Fly is powered by twin Yamaha F300NSB2 w/Joystick outboard engines, delivering impressive performance and fuel efficiency. The boat is equipped with recessed side-decks for safe movement, an aft sliding side door for easy access, and ample storage throughout. The interior is designed for comfort, featuring an owner's cabin forward with a center-line bed, a guest cabin to port, and an optional third cabin to starboard that can serve as additional sleeping space or storage. The head compartment includes a separate shower area, enhancing onboard convenience.
