ABOUT

Long Island 86

LOCATION

Concarneau, Bretagne, France

The Long Island 86 Power is a large cruising power catamaran designed by Marc Lombard Design Group and built by JFA Yachts. It features an aluminum hull with a composite deck, offering strength, reduced weight, and durability.

The layout includes expansive living areas and bright interiors. The flybridge version includes a navigation station, sheltered bar, and lounge seating. An enclosed wheelhouse layout is also available. The foredeck includes a Jacuzzi and seating area, while the aft platform carries a large tender and space for water toys.

The yacht accommodates 8 guests across 4 cabins, along with space for up to 4 crew members. Interior design is managed in partnership with Frank Darnet Design and can be fully customized.

Built for long-range cruising, the Long Island 86 Power combines efficient performance with practical living space and a focus on comfort at sea.
