ABOUT

Papa Joe

LOCATION

Bodrum, Mugla, Turkey

This 34-meter steel gulet , built in 2007, is in very good, well-maintained condition . She offers 5 guest cabins , a spacious interior with generous volumes , and wide deck areas that are comfortable and functional. Her exterior has well-balanced proportions , while the interior benefits from a layout that feels open and airy.

The design is slightly dated by today’s standards , but this is offset by her solid steel construction and consistent maintenance over the years. She represents one of the rare steel gulets on the market , making her a strong option for both private use and charter.
