Welcome aboard M/Y STEEL — a 55-meter oceangoing explorer, built by Pendennis Shipyard in the UK and delivered in 2009. Ice-classed and constructed with a robust 3 cm thick steel hull, she is engineered to navigate through up to 80 cm of ice, delivering true long-range exploration capability. Fully repainted in 2025 and meticulously maintained throughout her life, she combines proven pedigree with enduring elegance, offering her next owner a vessel of uncompromising strength, sophistication, and timeless appeal.

M/Y STEEL offers an extraordinary blend of luxury and functionality. Her spacious interior by Liebowitz & Partners accommodates 12 guests in 7 cabins, including a master suite, two VIP cabins, and four twin cabins with extra bunk beds. The crew quarters are equally well-appointed, providing comfortable living for up to 12 crew members in 6 cabins. State-of-the-art entertainment systems are integrated throughout, featuring LG OLED TVs, Yamaha amplifiers, and Apple TV 4K media players in every key area, including the main salon, private lounge, and all guest cabins.

Designed for the adventurous at heart, M/Y STEEL comes equipped with a diesel-heated endless pool featuring an artificial current, perfect for both leisurely swims and serious training. Unique features such as a bow-mounted dolphin observation basket and a sophisticated wine cellar for 600 bottles with an adjoining cigar bar elevate the onboard experience. Throughout the yacht, discreet speakeasy-style corners reveal hidden spaces. An expedition-grade galley, complete with a walk-in refrigerator, ensures culinary excellence even in the most remote destinations.

This Pendennis 55M is powered by twin CAT 3512B engines, providing a total of 2 x 1100 HP, enabling a cruising speed of 10 knots and an impressive range of 10,000 nautical miles. Her comprehensive mechanical, navigation, and communication equipment, including Quantum Zero Speed stabilizers, ensure comfort and safety on long voyages. M/Y STEEL is truly an exceptional yacht, ready for a new owner to embark on unparalleled adventures worldwide.
