The smallest in the Venom range has all the characteristics of the bigger members, offered in a compact size. Soul of every Venom model is a refined stepped hull. Offshore characteristics combined with the addition of two steps designed by the famous naval architect Lorne Campbell. This combination offers a perfect match of capabilities in rough weather conditions, great fuel economy and performance. Luxury is part of the DNA as well as practicality, comfort and top quality. Last but not least, as in all Venom models, you will find as standard on board a T-Top
