With her seamless hardtop, large hull windows, and sweeping sheer the Sea Ray 350 Sundancer (called the 370 Sundancer beginning in 2010) strikes the right balance of innovative design and next-generation styling. She's built on a deep-V hull with cored hullsides and a solid fiberglass bottom. The especially lush accommodations are a match for the most expensive European sports yachts. With 6'7" of cabin headroom and a huge mid-stateroom, the interior is that of a considerably larger boat. The comfortable cockpit can seat a small crowd and includes a deluxe wet bar with a refrigerator, teak cockpit table, power engine-room hatch, and a clever aft-facing transom seat that folds out of the lazarette and overlooks the swim platform. The swivel helm and companion seats are a nice touch.
