ABOUT

Sea Ray 240 Sundancer

NEW TO MARKET

Location: Chesapeake Bay Region

Engine: MerCruiser 5.0L MPI Bravo III (260 HP)

Hours: 570 original hours

Condition: Like New / Extremely Clean – Lift Kept

An outstanding opportunity to step into the world of pocket cruising with an exceptionally clean, lift-kept 2007 Sea Ray 240 Sundancer. Kept out of the water and meticulously maintained, this vessel shines like a much newer boat. All engine and drive maintenance is completely up to date—including crucial major service items like the risers and exhaust manifolds, giving its next owner complete peace of mind on the water.

Whether you are looking to anchor out at St. Michaels, explore hidden coves along the Eastern Shore, or take quick evening cruises across the Bay, the 240 Sundancer offers the perfect balance of trailerable/pocket size, nimble handling, and true weekend cruising capability.

This is your Gateway to Chesapeake Bay Adventure at a Fraction of the Cost!

Don't let high slip fees or steep boat prices hold you back from living the boating lifestyle. This super-clean 2007 Sea Ray 240 Sundancer delivers ultimate versatility for the Chesapeake—easy to keep on a lift or trailer, nimble enough for single-handed day trips, and fully equipped for comfortable weekend overnights in your favorite harbor.

With turn-key maintenance, 570 original hours, and a like-new condition that must be seen in person, this boat represents one of the lowest entry points into true cruiser ownership on the market today.

She won't last long at this price and condition! Contact Bob Milton today @ 410-456-5500 to schedule your private showing before she’s gone.
