ABOUT

2013 Stingray 225

LOCATION

Mendon, Massachusetts, United States

Donation General Description The 225CR is a robust boat designed for navigating rough waters, featuring ample freeboard for added safety and performance. Thanks to Stingray's Z-plane hull, it swiftly rises out of the water, achieving quicker speeds and a smoother ride. With a length just shy of 23 feet and a generous 8.33-foot beam, this boat offers a roomy cockpit and cabin, making it an excellent choice for comfortable overnight stays. A convenient recessed cabin step leads to the spacious V-berth with various amenities, while the bi-fold doors with smoke inserts and keyed entry lock offer added privacy.

Actual Condition Introducing this fantastic Stingray up for sale on behalf of a donation company! While a trailer is not included, the engine is reported to be in working condition by the donor and the overall shape is impressive. Considering it's a 2013 model, this boat still looks remarkably clean and well-maintained. Have a closer look, and if it piques your interest, don't hesitate to submit your best offers for consideration. This might be the boat you've been waiting for!
