ABOUT

Summit 54

LOCATION

Annapolis, Maryland, United States

This is the last Summit! Built by the legendary Kadey Krogen, the hull form was designed by the renowned firm of Michael Peters and she's incredibly efficient on plane without pounding in a chop. She also offers an incredibly stable ride at low speeds made even more so by her Seakeeper gyro. The upper deck is an entertainment lounge for a 75 footer complete with a full helm, retractable sunshades and sunlounges. This boat was designed for the 2025 Show Season by the builder and has never been titled to a private owner. Warranties transfer....Never lived in, stove, oven, grills.....all unused. She has run from Newport down to Annapolis and Florida for the 2025 show season and is now ready to be sold at an amazing price.
