ABOUT

1981 Amf Alcort Puffer Sailboat

LOCATION

Mendon, Massachusetts, United States

Brokerage General Description The 12' AMF Alcort Puffer from 1981 is a classic sailboat known for its simplicity and versatility. With a length of 12 feet, it's compact yet offers a stable and enjoyable sailing experience. The boat typically features easy maneuvering, and a roomy cockpit that can comfortably accommodate a small crew.

Built by AMF Alcort, this Puffer model is recognized for its durability and is often favored by both beginners and experienced sailors looking for a fun and uncomplicated sailing adventure.

Actual Condition This is an AMF Puffer and trailer combo, offered by CSI on behalf of our client. Both the boat and trailer have been safely stored for a while, waiting for the right captain to set sail.

Originally destined for the Taunton Great River in southeastern Massachusetts, this Puffer comes with a history of dreams set afloat. Life got in the way for our client, and now this charming dinghy is ready for a new home.

Complete with all the gear you see in the pictures, it's an ideal vessel for beginners or seasoned sailors looking for a splash of excitement. Don't miss out on the chance to make waves with this neat little gem.

The Puffer is being sold exclusively on a Bill of Sale, while the trailer comes with a title. Please submit your best offers.

Equipment A trailer is included in this sale.
