ABOUT

Honey Girl

LOCATION

Potrero, Guanacaste Province, Costa Rica

The 2005 61' Viking Convertible Flybridge "Honey Girl" represents an exceptional opportunity to acquire a highly upgraded and meticulously maintained sportfishing yacht with the performance and reputation that define the Viking brand. Purposefully outfitted for serious offshore fishing while offering refined comfort throughout, she has benefited from continuous investment and the dedicated care of a full-time captain and crew. Significant recent upgrades include a beautifully redesigned interior, the addition of a Seakeeper SK16 gyrostabilizer, Furuno CSH8L Omni Sonar, and an advanced Simrad electronics package featuring five multifunction displays. Her custom Midnight Blue Awlgrip paint finish delivers a commanding presence, while major mechanical improvements—including twin Northern Lights Generators and a comprehensive in-frame overhaul by Valley Detroit Power Systems—provide added confidence and long-term value. Combining proven Viking performance with extensive updates and turnkey condition, "Honey Girl" presents a rare offering for owners seeking a vessel equally suited for tournament competition, extended cruising, or private enjoyment.

Seller will also consider a unique half-share ownership opportunity. **

Located in Marina Flamingo, Costa Rica.
