LOCATION

Napoli, Campania, Italy

The 2024 Wally WHY150 represents a perfect synthesis of innovation, iconic design, and extraordinary volume, positioning itself among the most advanced yachts in its category. This particular unit, maintained in like-new condition, has been used solely for private purposes and has never been chartered.

Defined by Wally's revolutionary full-wide-body concept, it offers exceptionally spacious and light-filled interiors, with a seamless layout designed to maximize comfort and livability. Expansive glass surfaces create a continuous connection with the sea, while the interiors are finished with top-tier materials in a refined, contemporary style.

This yacht is configured in a super full optional specification, featuring dual electrical systems (US and European), making it perfectly suited for unrestricted international use. The onboard experience is further enhanced by a premium entertainment system by McIntosh and Sonus Faber, delivering audiophile-level sound quality throughout every area of the yacht.

Powered by a Volvo Penta propulsion system, the yacht ensures outstanding performance, superior maneuverability, and exceptional comfort while cruising. Advanced technical solutions, including stabilization systems, guarantee a smooth and enjoyable experience both underway and at anchor.

A truly unique yacht, ideal for a discerning owner seeking distinctive design, cutting-edge technology, and the highest level of exclusivity.
